1	Gordon Gee		President	President's Office	Hosted by the Boy Scouts of America Office of Philanthropy, passengers will travel to the Summit Bechtel Reserve for the World Scout Jamboree for two days of tours, meetings, unveilings and dedications. WVU has a partnership with the BSA now offering 4-year degrees in Organizational Leadership and Adventure Recreation Management. These two degree programs are focused specifically on preparing students for a future in scouting and other youth development organizations. WVU also partners directly with the SBR with programs such as the Science Adventure School and Science Behind the Sport—a series of educational programs that demonstrate the fundamental principles in the context of adventure activities. The two days at the SBR are part of the 24th World Scout Jamboree. Passengers will engage at various events with WVU and BSA donors, students and potential students through various WVU recruiting efforts.	3, 4, 5
